

made during the proceedings, subject only to technical, grammatical, and typographical corrections authorized by the person making the remarks involved.

The records of the Committee at the National Archives and Records Administration shall be made available in accordance with Rule XXXVI of the Rules of the House. The Chair of the full Committee shall notify the ranking minority member of the full Committee of any decision, pursuant to clause 3(b)(3) or clause 4(b) of Rule XXXVI of the House, to withhold a record otherwise available, and the matter shall be presented to the Committee for a determination on the written request of any member of the Committee.

16. ACCESS TO CLASSIFIED OR SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Access to classified or sensitive information supplied to the Committee and attendance at closed sessions of the Committee or its subcommittees shall be limited to members and necessary Committee staff and stenographic reporters who have appropriate security clearance when the Chair determines that such access or attendance is essential to the functioning of the Committee.

The procedure to be followed in granting access to those hearings, records, data, charts, and files of the Committee which involve classified information or information deemed to be sensitive shall be as follows:

(A) Only Members of the House of Representatives and specifically designated Committee staff of the Committee on Small Business may have access to such information.

(B) Members who desire to read materials that are in the possession of the Committee should notify the clerk of the Committee or the subcommittee possession of the materials.

(C) The clerk will maintain an accurate access log which identifies the circumstances surrounding access to the information, without revealing the material examined.

(D) If the material desired to be reviewed is material which the Committee or subcommittee deems to be sensitive enough to require special handling, before receiving access to such information, individuals will be required to sign an access information sheet acknowledging such access and that the individual has read and understands the procedures under which access is being granted.

(E) Material provided for review under this rule shall not be removed from a specified room within the Committee offices.

(F) Individuals reviewing materials under this rule shall make certain that the materials are returned to the proper custodian.

(G) No reproductions or recordings may be made of any portion of such material.

(H) The contents of such information shall not be divulged to any person in any way, form, shape or manner, and shall not be discussed with any person who has not received the information in an authorized manner.

(I) When not being examined in the manner described herein, such information will be kept in secure safes or locked file cabinets in the Committee offices.

(J) These procedures only address access to information the Committee or a subcommittee deems to be sensitive enough to require special treatment.

(K) If a Member of the House of Representatives believes that certain sensitive information should not be restricted as to dissemination or use, the Member may petition the Committee or subcommittee to so rule. With respect to information and materials provided to the Committee by the executive branch, the classification of information and materials as determined by the executive branch shall prevail unless affirmatively changed by the Committee or the subcommittee involved, after consultation with the appropriate executive agencies.

(L) Other materials in the possession of the Committee are to be handled in accordance with the normal practices and traditions of the Committee.

17. OTHER PROCEDURES

The Chair of the full Committee may establish such other procedures and take such actions as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing rules or to facilitate the effective operation of the Committee.

The Committee may not be committed to any expense whatever without the prior approval of the Chair of the full Committee.

18. AMENDMENTS TO COMMITTEE RULES

The Rules of the Committee may be modified, amended or repealed by a majority vote of the members, at a meeting specifically called for such purpose, but only if written notice of the proposed change has been provided to each such member at least forty-eight hours before the time of the meeting.
